

Project's User Manual

- To run the application go to the code/release directory and double click on Group12.exe.
- You can switch between Orthographic and Perspective projections with the P key.
- You can orientate your camera around with the mouse.
- By clicking with the left mouse button, you get information about the pixel clicked.
- You can move the camera with the W, A, S and D keys.
- To edit the code, you can go to the code/source directory and open the Assignment1.sln with Visual Studio, where you can change the parameters you want in the application, compile it and run to check the differences.

Group 12 - 2020/2021